

Authentication

Our API uses bearer tokens for authentication. Follow these steps to authenticate your requests:

1. Obtain an API key from your dashboard
2. Include the API key in the `Authorization` header of your requests

Note

Additional authentication methods are planned for the future and may be available upon request.